

Wills and Legacies

Toolkit for Teachers

Did you know it is obligatory (fardh) to ensure your assets are correctly distributed upon death?

Teaching our children about the key topic of preparing for death, it is important we educate them on the importance of writing a Will, so that wealth is shared equitably between the rightful heirs. Read our Wills Guide here to understand the scriptural importance of this. Since 2003, 1st Ethical have a long standing track record of successfully helping thousands of Muslim in preparing an Islamic and legally valid Will with 40,000 guides annually distributed.

This Toolkit for Teachers tells you step-by-step how to better educate your students on this key priority, at a level appropriate to their understanding, with our team at 1st Ethical ready to support you throughout the campaign.

4 simple steps towards a Wills-wise classroom:

- 1 SCHOOL ASSEMBLY on Wills - The assembly template has been written by specialists and approved by Al-Qalam Scholars. You can read our synopses here.
- 2 CLASSROOM LESSON - the lesson plan, teacher's notes and lesson PowerPoint are provided free of charge as part of our unique KS3 Curriculum.
- 3 DISTRIBUTE THE WILLS GUIDE - an easy and practical guide provided to all free-of-charge. You can give these out after the above assembly for the students to pass onto their parents, creating a learning experience for all the family.

- 4 DAY OF ACTION: WILLS CLINIC - host a Wills clinic where parents and community members can come and write their Wills. Air our webtorial and click here for our DIY Wills template. We can provide specialist support on the day if necessary.

“Indeed, that you should leave your heirs prosperous is better than that you should leave them destitute so that they hold out their hands to the people”.
(Sahīh'l-Bukhāri)

We have partnered with Britain's four largest Muslim charities, Islamic Relief, Muslim Aid, Muslim Hands and Ummah Welfare Trust on this campaign. Our DIY Wills template gives the opportunity to leave a legacy to these charities work around the world.
