

Money Matters

Toolkit for Teachers

Current economic difficulties are leading to sharp rises in unemployment, job insecurity and indebtedness, impacting Muslims hardest as British Muslims unemployment is already more than triple the national average. Equipping our children with the skills to survive and thrive against these difficulties is key. That's why 1st Ethical have launched the Money Matters campaign to empower Muslims to succeed in money management and entrepreneurship. Read about the scriptural importance of this here.

This Toolkit for Teachers tells you step by step how to better educate your students on money matters, at a level appropriate to their understanding, with our team at 1st Ethical ready to support you throughout the campaign.
